
Charles Stewart
DANCE INSTITUTE

Charles Stewart Dance Institute provides the most professional facility and experienced faculty to give the student a sound understanding and appreciation of dance. All teachers are recognized authorities in their fields. All classes are videotaped and shown on closed circuit TV. The use of video in the class enables student and teacher alike to appraise the student's progress more effectively--a learning method widely used today in professional dance companies. Special features include: Imported vinyl-covered wood floor, air conditioning, individual dressing rooms, large dance video library, and more.

Director: CHUCK STEWART

Chuck Stewart has a 21-year list of credits in the dance field, including: principal dancer/guest artist and choreographer with many ballet companies throughout the USA; lead role in a CBS presentation of the Nutcracker Ballet; general manager of a ballet company; featured performer in many summer stock musicals; and producer/director of dance programs for cable TV. He has taught master classes wherever he has performed and has a California State Teaching Credential and a B.S. in Physics.
